A man juggles finding his wife's killer and tries not to let his short-term memory loss become an obstacle. Meanwhile, his daughter and other family members are trying to maintain a balance in family life. All of this is happening against the backdrop of a murder that has created an atmosphere of fear and mistrust in the city. A series of murders take place in a small town. Everything suggests that the accursed witch, who lived here until recently, is to blame for all this. Witches don't really exist. But people don't want to believe it. Everyone wants only one thing - to get rid of this curse. Everyone has their own fears in their souls.
